

Un abbraccio tra la pietra bianca e la morbida pelle : un portariviste caratterizzato da un netto contrasto cromatico e materico che avvicina, per la prima volta, la pietra leccese alle lavorazioni sartoriali.

An embrace between the stone and the soft white skin: a magazine rack features a clear contrast of color and material that brings, for the first time, the limestone to tailoring.

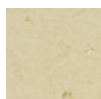

Portariviste realizzato in pietra lavorata a controllo numerico e rifinitura in pelle lavorata a mano con impunture a vista

Magazine rack made of stone carved with digital control and leather finish hand-worked with visible stitching.
